

A white hot tub with a dark brown cabinet is situated outdoors, overlooking a clear blue ocean. A palm tree trunk is visible behind the tub, and lush green foliage surrounds it. The sky is bright blue with a few clouds. The hot tub has a control panel on the right side and a small logo on the cabinet.

Completely remodeled and re-envisioned, this beautiful beach house is stylish and chic. With an enviable location at the water's edge, this house sits inside the gated, community of Kawela Bay. With just 9 beachfront homes on the bay, you'll feel you have the place to yourself and enjoy peace and quiet.

This two-story, three-bedroom, two-bathroom home exudes the lifestyle of Hawaii's bygone days. The calm bay and sandy bottom are perfect for long swims, kayaks, standup paddleboarding, and swimming with turtles.

This summer, the beach house went through a complete renovation that included a new kitchen, furniture throughout, new ground floor bathroom, and beachside Jacuzzi. The new kitchen is fully equipped, opens to the dining and living areas, and now has bar seating along the new counter top. Two bedrooms are located downstairs offering garden views and they share a bathroom with a shower. Upstairs the master bedroom offers California King bed plus a queen-sized day bed and an en suite bathroom with a shower.

The beachside, covered patio offers additional space, the picnic table is perfect for enjoying meals outdoors while overlooking the bay, watching turtles, and taking in the stunning sunsets.
